call on the King of Bavaria, who has just arrived in Paris. I hope to see you to-morrow.

27th. (To Josephine.) Eugene tells me you were quite sad yesterday; it is very wrong of you, dear friend, and contrary to what you had promised. I am very bored at seeing the Tuileries again; this great palace seems empty and I feel isolated.

31st. To-day there is a grand parade; I shall see all my Old Guard with sixty artillery trains.

(To Alexander I, Emperor of Russia.) My Brother: I have received a second note from your Chancellor Roman-zoff; it grieves me. Why turn back to matters that were disposed of by my letter from Vienna? After all this, I don't know what people want; I cannot destroy chimeras or tilt against clouds. I leave it to Your Majesty to decide which of us holds closer to the language of alliance and friendship. A beginning of suspicion means that Erfurt and Tilsit are already forgotten.
